Druid Hills Kiwanis Club

Scope and content: The Druid Hills Kiwanis Club collection consists of the Kiwanews from the Kiwanis club of Druid Hills from 1957 to 2008. The collection includes bulletins, memorials, surveys, fundraisers, annual budgets, national convention news, and newspaper clippings of local issues.

Provenance: Gift of Robert Gerwig, Accession # 2009.17.

Access: Single photocopies may be made for research purposes. Permission to publish materials from this collection must be requested from the archivist, DeKalb History Center. Citation should be as follows:

Description of specific item; Druid Hills Kiwanis Club, DeKalb History Center Archives.

Processed by Victoria Belarde, DHS intern.

Size: 6 document boxes.

Organizational History: The Kiwanis Club started in Detroit, Michigan in 1915 as a form of business networking for men. A year later the club became an international organization. In 1919 the Kiwanis Club changed its focus to service. Women were not admitted into the organization until 1987. The Druid Hills branch of the Kiwanis Club began on May 7, 1957 in the Emory University Alumni Memorial Building. Their motto is “we build.”

Note: Additional information can be found at <http://sites.kiwanis.org/kiwanis/en/home.aspx>

Description: The collection consists of newsletters (Kiwanews) from the Druid Hills Kiwanis Club. The newsletters contain articles of local and national issues, members, goings-on of different branches, philosophical musings, club fundraisers, meetings, and attendance, and show many changes throughout the late 1960s to 2008. Other documents in the collection are surveys for fundraisers and meeting sites, bulletins for conventions/memorials/holiday events, and newspaper clippings about local and national club concerns such as female membership.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.
